Frellsen 318-1

P O Box 86
Sicily Island, Louisiana 71368
29 October 1976

Dear Mrs. Frellsen,

I am the other half of the team that is working on the research of the Frellsen and Wooten families. Helen Henslee, the lady who has seen you has told me about you, however has not yet told me very much of the information that you gave to her.

I have intended writing you before now, but due to this and that thing, have been unduly delayed. I am somewhat handicapped by health problems and just do not accomplish all the things to which I would like. I do plan to come see you in the near future and talk to you relative to the possible relationship of the Frellsen-Wooten families. I do say 'possible' for reasons that many items of information point to the connection; however there has not at this time been any documentary data to prove this, which prevents such from becoming genealogy. That is the one thing I am so diligently seeking.

Anna Wooten is my blooded great grandmother. If she is the individual we think she is, the daughter of Henry and Caroline Frellsen, they would be my great, great grandparents. Perhaps after I talk to you, I will be more convinced of the kinship. It is not that I doubt it, but it is absolutely and essentially necessary to produce a document of proof for it to become bona fide genealogy.

I am enclosing a copy of the deed whereby Henry Frellsen purchased the Sugar Plantation in St Charles Parish. It really is of very little significance to either of us. It will only show the financial worth of Henry Frellsen at the time, 1857. I had written the Clerk of Court of St Charles Parish, July last, at a time we were desperately searching for any information by which we could tie these families together. I just this received this copy this week. Since I had the document and could get a copy at no cost, I thought it might be of interest to you. Joseph Walker, your father-in-law, purchased in 1886, this property from the other heirs of Henry Frellsen after his death in 1884. I do not have at this time the papers of the purchase by Joseph Walker, but have written for them.

I will let you know a definite date that you can expect me and do hope that it will not be too far in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Geraldine Cruse
(Mrs.) Geraldine Cruse Wooten
